Program focus

The program is offered by applied research which extends studio expertise while demonstrating a strong theoretical understanding of practice. The structure, content and demands of the program are designed to prepare students for practice at a high level in the arts industry.

Program aims

The program aims to provide an opportunity for graduates and suitably qualified visual artists to pursue in depth practical and theoretical studies and to develop their practice to a higher artistic and academic level in the particular studio disciplines offered within the Visual Arts programs; drawing, print-making, painting, ceramics, sculpture, textiles, cross disciplinary studies, multimedia, gallery studies and theory.

Candidates for the degree are expected to attain a level of achievement and conceptual understanding in the discipline which is significantly higher than that expected for a Bachelor or Honours degree. The coursework aims to provide a high degree of understanding of contemporary cross-cultural issues and research processes for visual arts praxis in Australia.

Program objectives

On successful completion of the program students should:

- demonstrate a high level of ability within their chosen practice
- demonstrate a valuable contribution to their chosen field of practice
- demonstrate adv
