key element of the process of determining suitability. All applications for a suitability notice must be made at the local campus of the university at the commencement of their program. Students who do not make application, or who do apply but are subsequently deemed unsuitable, will not be able to undertake the professional experience components of the program.

Further information, including a list of serious offences which could lead to a pre-service educator being deemed unsuitable, are available from the Commission's website at http://www.ccypcg.qld.gov.au.

IT requirements

Students will be expected to have access to a computer with common productivity software (e.g. word processing, spreadsheet, presentation software), email and the Internet. See minimum computing standards for more information.

Exit points

Exit points will be available for students who complete various components of the program as shown in the following table.

While University qualifications may be used for a multitude of purposes, students need to be aware that the exit programs referred to above, have not been accredited for purposes of teacher certification in P - 12 settings in Queensland, or for group leadership or Directorship in a Childcare Centre in Queensland.
