Important notes about Residential Schools (Counselling Major):

To gain eligibility for membership in a Psychotherapy & Counselling Federation of Australia counselling association (PACFA) students need to ensure they have met the minimum face to face tuition requirements for CDS1001, CDS1002, CDS3001, CDS3002, CDS3004, and CDS3005 by attending the course residential schools.

Attendance at the Residential School for CDS1001, CDS1002, CDS3001, CDS3002, CDS3004, and CDS3005 is strongly recommended. Attendance will be recorded to enable the student to demonstrate that they meet a proportion of the required number of hours of face-to-face instruction/tuition for eligibility to join a PACFA affiliate upon graduation.

Students in the counselling major who cannot attend the Residential School may apply to attend the following year, may consider transferring to BHMS (Child and Family) or another major, or stay within the program and potentially graduate without eligibility for PACFA membership.
