

Admission requirements

A minimum of a recognised three-year bachelor degree (or equivalent) in a discipline other than education is required.

Secondary pathway applicants must demonstrate discipline knowledge in two defined teaching areas in their first degree or other studies. For assistance refer to Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority.

All applicants must show how their prior studies meet these requirements by submitting a completed Teaching Areas form with their application.

Domestic and International Applicants from a non-English speaking background are required to satisfy English language requirements.

If you do not meet the English language requirements you may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, Applicants may be admitted to an Award Program.

Program fees

Commonwealth supported place

A Commonwealth supported place is where the Australian Government makes a contribution towards the cost of your higher education and you as a student pay a student contribution amount, which varies depending on the courses undertaken. You are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder. Commonwealth Supported students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called HECS-HELP.

Domestic full fee paying place

Domestic full fee paying places are funded entirely through the full fees paid by the student. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken. You are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Domestic full fee paying students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called FEE-HELP provided they meet the residency and citizenship requirements.

Australian citizens, Permanent Humanitarian Visa holders, Permanent Resident visa holders and New Zealand citizens who will be resident outside Australia for the duration of their program pay full tuition fees and are not eligible for FEE-Help.

International full fee paying place

International students pay full fees. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken and whether they are studied on-campus, via distance education/online. You are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Program completion requirements

In order to complete the Graduate Diploma of Learning and Teaching, a student must complete 8 specified units of study. See the table below:

Professional Experience All students, domestic and international, must complete the majority of supervised professional experience in Australian Secondary school settings.

All students, domestic and international, must complete the majority of supervised professional experience in Australian Secondary school settings.

Within each sector strand, the professional experience components of the program are all tied to four courses, so that students undertake two professional experience placements in both semesters of full-time enrolment.

In order to undertake the courses to which professional experience placements are attached in the second half of the program, it is a requirement that students will have satisfactorily completed the professional experience courses in the first semester of the full-time enrolment pattern. For EDM8004 Teacher Identity there is the additional requirement that students undertaking the embedded placement in a Queensland school will need to have been granted an Internship Authority by the Queensland College of Teachers.

It is highly recommended that for the Graduate Diploma of Learning and Teaching enrolment pattern students do the first professional experience course EDG2000 Designing for Learning/EDG5000 Designing for Learning in their first semester so they will be able to decide if teaching is for them.

See Professional Experience Forms for further information.

IT requirements

Students must have reliable and ready access to email and the Internet. Broadband would be a significant advantage. See minimum computing standards

Other program requirements

The major program requirements are the satisfactory completion of 8 specified units and 75 days of approved professional experience. However, in order to undertake the professional e

Middle Years recommended enrolment pattern (continuing students, no new enrolments)

Students are able to enrol in any offered mode of a course (on-campus, external or online), regardless of the program mode of study they enrolled in.

Note: from 2015 the Queensland College of Teachers requires a two-year graduate degree for teacher registration. The current one-year program will be phased out. Students who commenced a one year program in in primary or middle schooling must complete the approved program by the end of 2015 to be assured of eligibility to apply for teacher registration.

Students should not make changes to this pattern without first contacting the Faculty of Business, Education, Law and Arts for advice.

It is highly recommended that for the Graduate Diploma of Learning and Teaching enrolment pattern, students do the first professional experience course EDG2000 or EDG5000 in their first semester so they will be able to decide if teaching is for them.

Students following a non-standard enrolment pattern should consult the course synopses section to ascertain if a course is offered in another semester.

Note: minimum enrolment numbers apply to all courses. Should enrolments not meet the minimum number required, students may be transferred to a different mode or offering and advised of this change prior to semester start.
