Program objectives

On successful completion of the Master of Applied Linguistics, graduates should be able to:

- critically reflect on language related issues and analyse their implications
- integrate knowledge and assess outcomes as a strategic facilitator in second language contexts
- expand communication management and multi-literacy skills assisted by technology in relevant discourse communities
- demonstrate enhanced competence in academic and scholarly writing
- use analytical skills in a specialised field of Applied Linguistics.

Admission requirements

Applicants must have completed a bachelor degree or equivalent from a recognised institution.

Domestic and International Applicants from a non-English speaking background are required to satisfy English language requirements.

If you do not meet the English language requirements you may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, Applicants may be admitted to an Award Program.

Program fees

Domestic full fee paying place

Domestic full fee paying places are funded entirely through the full fees paid by the student. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken. You are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Domestic full fee paying students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called FEE-HELP provided they meet the residency and citizenship requirements.

The Teaching Strand embeds the PGAL Teaching Strand. Articulating PGAL students will study 3 Required Research Courses and one Elective course to complete their MAPL research pathway or 3-4 Applied Linguistics elective courses and optionally one postgraduate elective course to complete their MAPL coursework pathway.

Exit points

The Postgraduate Certificate in Applied Linguistics (PGAL) and the Postgraduate Certificate in Learning and Development (PGLD) are optional exit points from the Masters with four relevant courses completed.
