Program completion requirements

Students are required to follow the recommended enrolment pattern for their selected specialisation.

Program structure

The Master of Learning and Development is a 12-unit program. Three guidelines shape the program structure.

- A minimum of six units must be 8000 level courses (AQF level 9).
- Three mandatory research courses must be taken (which equates to four units of work). Students can choose from either the Applied Research Pathway or the Research Higher Degree Pathway.
 - Students who complete the Research Higher Degree Pathway as part of their program will be eligible to apply for entry to the Doctor of Philosophy \(PhD\) subject to achieving a minimum GPA of 5.75 in the four research units and meeting other PhD entry requirements.
 - The Applied Research Pathway does not qualify students for direct entry to the PhD program.
- Two discipline courses selected from USQ postgraduate courses. Select via the USQ programs search facility.

Students may choose to follow a prescribed enrolment pattern for one of the specialisations, or may prefer to

* Students should note that not all elective courses are available every year. When planning their enrolment patterns, students should refer to that year's schedule of course offers.

[^] This course is offered in odd-numbered years.

[†] This course is offered in even-numbered years.

[§] This course will be offered from 2016.

Professional experience

Professional experience is required and recommended in the Adult, Professional and Workplace Learning specialisation. Irrespective of level of academic performance achieved by students in this specialisation, no student will be eligible to graduate from the specialisation without satisfactorily demonstrating current professional competence against the performance criteria identified in the nominated courses.

Eligibility to undertake professional experience in Queensland Educational Settings

Under the terms of the Commission for Children and Young People Act (Qld. 2000), students undertaking professional experience are considered to be volunteers engaged in regulated employment. As such, all students working with children must apply to the Commission to be issued with a notice that they are suitable to work in child-related employment.

Articulation

The Master of Learning and Development articulates from the Graduate Certificate of Education..

On completion of the Master of Learning and Development, students may be eligible for entry into the Doctor of Education or the Doctor of Philosophy, provided they meet necessary entry requirements.

Exit points

Students who successfully complete a minimum of four units of the Master of Learning and Development will be eligible to exit with a Graduate Certificate of Education. in a specified area or with a non-specified award.

Students who successfully complete a defined sequence of eight units (six units from their specialisation and two other courses from the program) in the Master of Learning and Development will be eligible to exit with a Graduate Diploma of Education (GDEU).

Students wishing to exit with one of these awards are advised to contact the Faculty of Business Education Law and Arts.

Credit

Credit may be granted on the basis of completed equivalent postgraduate study from a recognised university. In order for credit to be granted, the claim must meet the following specific requirements:

- the course was passed within five years prior to the application (courses up to 10 years old may be considered if evidence is provided that the applicant has been employed in that field)
- the course passed is sufficiently equivalent in objectives, content and weightings to a course prescribed in the Master of Learning and Development, or alternatively, the course is suitable as an elective
- the maximum credit granted is no greater than six units for the Master of Learning and Development
- credit approved in the Master of Learning and Development will not automatically apply to other programs offered by the USQ.

Claims for credit should be submitted prior to or at the time of enrolment in a course. Each claim will be assessed on individual merit in line with USQ policy. Please contact the Faculty of Business, Education, Law and Arts for further information.
