Master of Education (Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)) or Master of Education (Full Fee Paying (FFP)) (MEDCorMEDF) • facilitate the development and consolidation of knowledge and skills in teaching and learning in community, professional and workplace learning settings that are informed by contemporary learning theory and

Australian citizens, Permanent Humanitarian Visa holders, Permanent Resident visa holders and New Zealand citizens who will be resident outside Australia for the duration of their program pay full tuition fees and are not eligible for FEE-Help.

International full fee paying place

International students pay full fees. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken and whether they are studied on-campus, via distance education/online. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Program structure

The Master of Education is a 12-unit program. These guidelines shape the program structure:

- With the exception of the general pathway, four required courses from the recommended enrolment pattern of the selected specialisation must be completed before enrolling in any research courses
- Three research courses must be taken (which equates to four units of work)
- Four courses from the recommended enrolment pattern of the selected specialisation.
- To be eligible to apply for entry to the Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) students must normally:
  - successfully complete the program with an overall GPA of 5.0 and
  - achieve a GPA of 5.75 for the four unit Research Specialisation
- Students who enter the DPHD Doctor of Philosophy program from the Research Specialisation in the Master of Education program will normally be required to complete two units of research methods and the two-unit confirmation of candidature course in the DPHD Doctor of Philosophy program.
- Students who successfully complete the Master of Education and who are not eligible for entry into the DPHD Doctor of Philosophy should check their eligibility for entry into the DEDU Doctor of Education.
