Program aims

This program is specifically designed for prospective students who require professional development or qualifications upgrade. The program also aims to produce graduates who have an advanced awareness, understanding and appreciation of the complexities of human thought, expression and behaviour as reflected in a specified discipline area. Graduates will also have demonstrated their capacity for specialised study, research and scholarship at a higher level and/or in applying knowledge in employment or community service, and have enhanced further their personal, cultural, creative and intellectual capacities.

Program objectives

On successful completion of the program students should:

- have advanced their professional knowledge in a manner that is appropriate to career progression
  - be able to evaluate and to analyse critically a range of ideas and theories pertaining to the creative arts or humanities
  - have acquired advanced knowledge, skills and competency in the content, epistemology and appreciation or practice of a particular discipline
  - be able to conceive, plan and execute a project requiring research, scholarship, composition, and interpretation at an advanced level.

Domestic full fee paying students may be eligible to defer their fees through a Government loan called FEE-HELP provided they meet the residency and citizenship requirements.

Australian citizens, Permanent Humanitarian Visa holders, Permanent Resident visa holders and New Zealand citizens who will be resident outside Australia for the duration of their program pay full tuition fees and are not eligible for FEE-Help.

International full fee paying place

International students pay full fees. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken and whether they are studied on-campus, via distance education/online. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Program structure

Depending on the discipline chosen, Master of Arts students may choose one of the following pathways or options:

- six courses of study comprising four units of course

Core courses

Core courses are essential to developing the skills required to conduct scholarly activity and independent research at Masters level. All students in the School of Humanities and Communication (except those taking

Exit points

Students who have completed 4 approved units of postgraduate study in the Master of Arts program may exit with the award of a Postgraduate Certificate in Arts.

Credit

Credit may be granted on the basis of equivalent courses undertaken at postgraduate level, or may be credited as electives towards the Master of Arts. In order for credit to be granted, the claim must meet the following requirements:

- the course passed was taken at least at postgraduate or equivalent level
- the course was passed within five years prior to the application (courses up to 10 years old may be considered)
- the course passed is equivalent in objectives, content and weightings to a course prescribed in the Master of Arts degree, or alternatively, the course is suitable as an elective
- the maximum number of units which may be credited in the Master of Arts program is four
- credit approved in this program will not automatically apply to other programs offered by the USQ.

Note: Where credit is granted, maximum and minimum duration will be adjusted in the same proportion as the credit, for example, where the maximum of 50 per cent credit is granted, maximum and minimum duration will be reduced by one-half.
