Programs at USQ regularly undergo a comprehensive re-accreditation process to assure their relevance and quality. This program is currently being re-accredited and, as a consequence, is likely to undergo some changes. Full details will be made available when it is approved. If you have any questions, please contact us.

Attendance recommendations: The core courses include HSW2120 Human Services Case Management which has a mandatory residential school attendance requirement that may be waived for students enrolled in the Bachelor of Human Services (Honours) upon application to the Course Examiner.

Program aims

This program aims to provide an enhanced understanding of the basic issues and principles in the community sector together with skills and theoretical frameworks for people interested in becoming human services professionals in the community sector. Particular major and minor studies will focus on competencies required for these roles. The program affords the opportunity to engage in specialised study of marginalised groups and the opportunity to complete a research project to promote the importance of evidence based practice. It prepares graduates for professional and leadership roles equipped with research knowledge and skills.

Program objectives

On completion of this program students should be able to:

- apply professional skills, autonomy, adaptability, responsibility as a practitioner and an understanding of the key issues appropriate for w

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, students may be admitted to an award program.

^   These are determined by the University for specific programs each Semester. The 2019 OP and tertiary entrance ranks are based on agreed QTAC schedules which assess formal study at Year 12 or equivalent level, tertiary, preparatory, professional or vocational qualifications or work experience, as detailed in the QTAC Assessment of Qualifications Manual and QTAC Assessor Guidelines.

Special admissions may help you get into the program of your choice by increasing your Selection Rank. The additional points don't apply to all applicants or all programs. Please read the information about placement courses students must participate in the required hours of placement offered at off-campus venues and satisfactorily demonstrate the learning objectives of the course.

Students may apply to articulate into the 3rd year of the Health and Wellbeing major if they hold a Bachelor degree in a health or development studies related field (e.g. speech therapy, occupational therapy, nursing or psychology).

Admission into the 4th year of the program is contingent upon students having completed the first 3 years of the program maintaining a minimum GPA of 5.0 or by permission of the program coordinator.

Students articulating from Counselling, Human Resources Management, Child and Family Studies, Community Development and Indigenous Studies majors in the Bachelor of Human Services (BHMS):

Students who have achieved a GPA of 5.0 are able to transition to the Bachelor of Human Services (Honours) degree at 4th year level in order to undertake an honours program. Students enrolled in the Health and Social Wellbeing major of the BHMS who wish to pursue honours study are required to articulate into the 3rd year of the Bachelor of Human Services (Honours) degree in order to avail themselves of the specialisation.

Program structure

The program comprises 32 units including 14 core courses (16 units) (or 11 core courses and 3 approved courses [#]) and one of the following combinations:

- one 12-unit Human Services major (Health and Social Wellbeing) and 4 electives, or
- one 8-unit Human Services major, one 4-unit minor and 4 electives, or
- one 8-unit Human Services major and two 4-unit minors, or
- one 8-unit Human Services major and 8 electives, or
- one 8-unit Human Services major and one other major.[*]

* The second 8-unit major can be chosen from any approved 8-unit major in the University.

Students wishing to undertake two 8-unit majors within the Bachelor of Human Services (Honours) should contact the Program Coordinator in the first instance. This can be done by email to usq.support@usq.edu.au with "BHSH enquiry" in the subject line, or by phone on + 61 7 4631 2285.

At least four courses in the program must be at level 3. Where two majors are chosen which have some compulsory courses in common, the overlap will be made up by taking extra electives.

# ACWA accreditation is only applicable to domestic students who complete a minimum of 400 hours of professional placement. Students not located in Australia must apply to the program coordinator to take approved courses instead of the three placement courses.
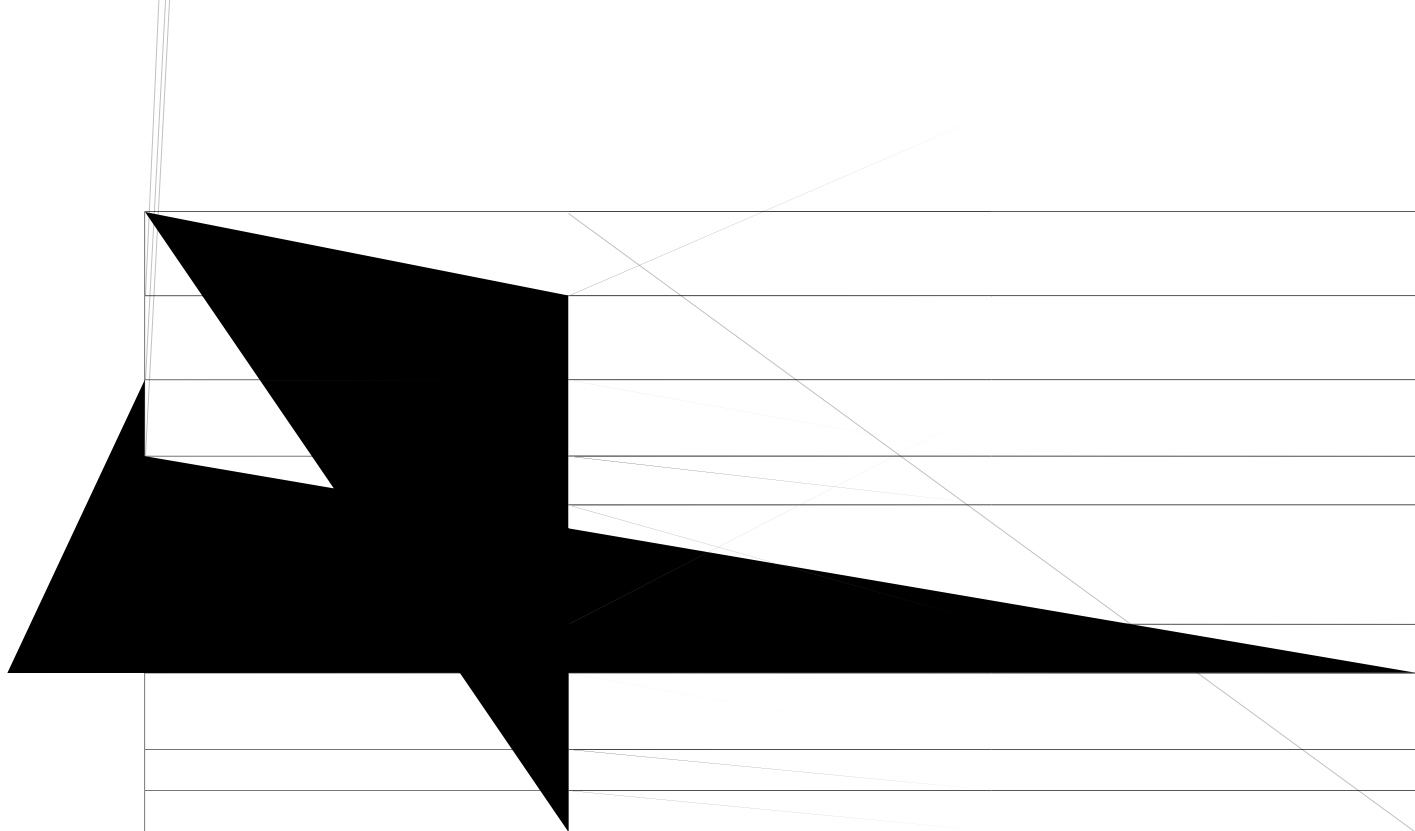

Required time limits

Students have a maximum of 9 years to complete the program.
