Program objectives

Students who successfully complete the Graduate Certificate of Education (Special Education) will have acquired advanced knowledge and understanding of key issues and trends within contemporary education and within the specialised area of special education. Graduates will be able to:

- (1) apply the concept of differentiation and critically analyse its place in inclusive education,
- (2) identify the factors that contribute to reading difficulties and apply problem-solving skills to design reading assessments,
- (3) select, evaluate and modify resources for instructing students with reading difficulties,
- (4) apply established theories and knowledge about the development of children and adolescents to the social and adjustment problems which many children and youth experience,
- (5) demonstrate an understanding of multilevel strategies for mental health promotion and intervention in educational contexts.

Program aims

The Graduate Certificate of Education (Special Education) will provide you with the foundational specialist knowledge and skills to work within education settings facilitating inclusion of all learners, particularly those with disabilities and additional learning needs. There is a specific focus on positive behaviour support, autism, differentiation, learning difficulties, wellbeing and trauma-informed practice. This graduate certificate is an entry point to the Master of Education (Special Education), which equips graduates with research skills that can be applied to a research project in special education work contexts.

Australian Qualifications Framework

The Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is a single national, comprehensive system of qualifications offered by higher education institutions (including universities), vocational education and training institutions and secondary schools. Each AQF qualification has a set of descriptors which define the type and complexity of knowledge, skills and application of knowledge and skills that a graduate who has been awarded that qualification has attained, and the typical volume of learning associated with that qualification type.

This program is at AQF Qualification Level 09. Graduates at this level will have specialised knowledge and skills for research, and/or professional practice and/or further learning.

The full set of levels criteria and qualification type descriptors can be found by visiting www.aqf.edu.au.

Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

- 3-year bachelor degree from an Australian university, or equivalent.
- English Language Proficiency requirements for Category 3.

For applicants who have a bachelor degree or equivalent (AQF level 7) in a non-related discipline from a recognised institution, the Graduate Certificate of Education (Special Education) provides a pathway into the Master of Education.
