Program aims

The Undergraduate Certificate of Child and Family Studies provides you with an entry point to working with children and their families. It focuses on developing your knowledge of underpinning theory and practices to support wellbeing and manage emotional and behavioural problems. This certificate can provide an entry point to a Bachelor of Education (Primary), which provides graduates with a qualification for teaching students in classroom school settings.

Program objectives

Upon successful completion of this program, students should be able to:

- (1) describe and analyse how policy, social practices, families and individuals contribute to frameworks for mental health and well being
- (2) outline and define the major social and adjustment problems e

The full set of levels criteria and qualification type descriptors can be found by visiting www.aqf.edu.au.
