Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

- Completion of an Australian Bachelor degree such as a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Creative Arts or equivalent from a recognised institution, with a minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) of 5.0, and
- A minimum of two years professional experience for those seeking entry to the Creative Arts major in the given discipline/field.
- English Language Proficiency requirements for Category 3.

Applicants for the Creative Arts major are advised to also address the following:

- Applicants must have completed a major in their discipline area or have equivalent professional experience. A portfolio of the applicant's creative work is to be made available upon request.
- Applicants must also include a report of no more than five pages, addressing the criteria below, and a 300 word description of the proposed project. Please advise the following:
 - how your proposed research will advance your professional knowledge in a manner that is appropriate to your career progression/aspirations
 - how your proposed research will evaluate and critically analyse a range of theories and methodologies pertaining to your sector/field in the creative arts
 - how your proposed research will be managed and evaluated - detail the resources you will need to complete this project (include equipment, personnel etc)
 - what your perceived outcome is for this research/project and who (other than yourself) stands to benefit from your research/project.
- Students intending to undertake research or project work should note that selection of any research topic is subject to the availability of an appropriate supervisor, and students must accept school guidance in their selection of a research topic.
- Students who have graduated with USQ's Graduate Certificate of Business and have a minimum of 2 years' full-time (or 4 years part-time) industry/professional work experience, or equivalent, will be considered for admission to the Corporate Communication major only in the Master of Arts.
- Students who have graduated with USQ's Graduate Certificate of Editing and Publishing will be considered for admission to the Editing and Publishing major only in the Master of Arts.

All students are required to satisfy the applicable English language requirements.

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approved

International full fee paying place

International students pay full fees. Full fees vary depending on the courses that are taken and whether they are studied on-campus, via distance education/online. Students are able to calculate the fees for a particular course via the Course Fee Finder.

Program structure

The following majors are available in the Master of Arts:

- Corporate Communication
Students have the opportunity to undertake a Corporate Communication specialisation with 8 units of coursework and a thesis or exegesis.
- Creative Arts
The major includes coursework in areas of interest and a thesis or exhibition/performance-based research project with exegesis. The following disciplines can be studied:
 - Film, Television and Radio
 - Music
 - Theatre
 - Visual Arts.
- Editing and Publishing
Editing and Publishing gives students the opportunity to further develop their skills and understanding of the theoretical, legal, ethical and practical elements of editing and publishing and of publishing management. Study consists of coursework and a thesis or exegesis.
- Humanities and Communication
The major includes coursework in areas of interest and a thesis or exegesis. The following disciplines can be studied within this major:
 - Communications and Media Studies
 - History
 - International Relations
 - Journalism
 - Social Sciences.

Depending on the discipline chosen, Master of Arts students choose 12 units of study comprising either:

- 8 units of coursework and 4 units of supervised research resulting in a thesis (20,000 words) or practice-based project with exegesis (10,000 words). The thesis, or practice-based project with exegesis, must be completed over two semesters.
- 6 units of coursework and 6 units of supervised research resulting in a thesis (30,000 words) or practice-based project with exegesis (20,000 words). The research component must be completed over three consecutive semesters.

The program can be undertaken full-time in 1.5 years, or part-time over 3 to 4 years. Part-time enrolment will normally be coursework in years one and two, and thesis and/or project work in year three, depending on the pathway chosen.

Please refer to the recommended enrolment patterns for further details on offerings from each discipline.

Please note: Students must choose either the Thesis OR Project/Exegesis pathway for Masters enrolment across the degree program. Students will not be able to change from thesis to exegesis in the course of undertaking research within this Masters program.

Semester 3: No courses will be offered in Semester 3 and students will not be able to commence the Masters program in Semester 3.

Program completion requirements

Students are required to complete 12 unit points within a consistent pattern as described within the Program Structure.

Required time limits

Students have a maximum of 6 years to complete this program.
