Master of Pub

Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

Admission requirements to the Master of Public Relations shall be a three-year undergraduate qualification, or; demonstrated equivalent industry qualifications, or; at least five years' relevant industry experience, or; IPRM Diploma plus three years' industry experience.

All students are required to satisfy the applicable English language requirements.

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approv

- the course passed was taken at least at Masters or equivalent level
- the course was passed within five years prior to the application (courses up to 10 years old may be considered if evidence is provided that the applicant has been employed in that field)
- the course passed is equivalent in objectives, content and weightings to a course prescribed in the Master of Public Relations, or alternatively, the course is suitable as an elective.

Students who do hold a relevant tertiary qualification at degree or equivalent level, and who have additionally accrued a minimum of five years industry experience, may make application for credit on the basis of work experience. Students must:

- provide written statements for each course credit being sought, demonstrating how the course objectives and topics have been achieved through employment experience
- provide a full curriculum vitae to assist in the assessment of applications for credit.

Students who do not hold a tertiary qualification at degree or equivalent level from a recognised institution, and who have been granted entry to the Master of Public Relations on the basis of equivalent work experience, will not be eligible to apply for credit on the basis of work experience.

To apply, students should submit an Credit Claim Form. Applications for credit should be submitted prior to, or at the time of, enrolment in the Master of Public Relations. Each claim will be assessed on individual merit in line with USQ policy. Credit approved in this program will not automatically apply to other programs offered by USQ.

Recommended enrolment pattern

Students are able to enrol in any offered mode of a course (on-campus, external or online), regardless of the program mode of study they enrolled in.
