Program aims

The Graduate Diploma of Learning and Teaching program aims to graduate students who demonstrate:

- the knowledge, skills, practices and values inherent in the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers
- the qualities and skills required of a UniSQ graduate (see UniSQ's Qualities of a Graduate Policy)
- high levels of personal and professional literacies
- awareness, understanding and positive orientation towards redressing the educational disadvantages experienced by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island students.

Admission requirements

To be eligible for admission, applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

- Completion of a three-year Bachelor degree, in a discipline other than education.
- Minimum of 4.0 Grade Point Average.
- English Language Proficiency requirements for Category 5.

Applicants are advised to also note the following:

- Secondary pathway applicants must demonstrate knowledge in two defined Teaching Areas in their first degree or other studies. For assistance refer to Queensland Curriculum and Assessment Authority.
- All applicants must show how their prior studies meet these requirements by submitting a completed Teaching Areas form - Form G with their application.

All students are required to satisfy the applicable English language requirements.

If students do not meet the English language requirements they may apply to study a University-approved English language program. On successful completion of the English language program, students may be admitted to an award program.
